

14/ ST. LOUIS

CAHOKIA MOUNDS STATE PARK

Located between Collinsville and East St. Louis, Illinois on I. 55-70 and U.S. 40-66

Twin mounds in foreground, one round and one flat-topped. Monks Mound in background, the world's largest man-made prehistoric earthen mound. Cahokia Mounds State Park contains 40 mounds and is part of what once was the largest prehistoric Indian city north of Mexico.
